I am Ram Bhat, I was born and brought up at Perla, Kasaragod District, a small place bordering Karnataka and Kerala, near Mangaluru. I did my schooling at Sathya Narayana High School Perla. I graduated in Graphic Design & Photography, BFA from JJ School of Arts, Mumbai. Later

I worked in leading advertising agencies in Mumbai for 7 years in the role of Visualiser, Photographer and Art Director. Later i started a graphic design firm and managed for 5 years before moving to Kuwait in 1997. In Kuwait I initially worked with scores of multinational ad companies before starting my own graphic design firm named Ideaplus Communications in 2004, and has been managing the business of print, digital and web productions. Over the years we have gained a clientele - adding some of the well known companies in Kuwait. I am proud to mention here that one of them is our own KKK member, Satishchandra

Shetty of Oriental Restaurants, who is a client, friend, and a guiding spirit besides business. I am KKK member since year 2000. I am married to Usha, who recently has joined me in my business. I have a twin daughters - Shraddha & Medha, who have been active in KKK programmes and cultural events until they shifted to India a couple of years ago and they are now studying in 12th at Mangaluru. My hobbies are reading, working, more reading if i am not working, besides fiddling with computers and gadgets until they completely breakdown.
